1. Members of the North Korean Democratic Youth League are making a block to block search in Seoul for former officials and prominent citizens of South Korea. When they are found these people are usually shot on the spot. All persons known to have been employed by U.S. agencies are also being shot.
2. All resistance has ceased in Seoul. The last remaining South Korean troops were eliminated on the morning of 30 June near the East Gate of the city.
3. A Seoul People's Committee has been formed with an unknown Communist as its chairman. The People's Committee has distributed four day's free rice to the Seoul population as evidence of the good faith of the Communist regime.
4. The Banto Hotel which was the former U.S. Embassy at Seoul has been occupied by the People's Army headquarters.
